

We value obtaining independent service from our independent ISP, Sonic.net! Bellsouth and other large companies' request would badly interfere with our choice of internet server for broadband. It is essential to us and for local community economic health that independent businesses be able to function without interference.